

Black History Month February 2009

Each February, Black History Month honors the struggles and triumphs of millions of American citizens as well as their contributions to the nation's cultural and political life. Carter G. Woodson, a noted scholar and historian, instituted Negro History Week in 1926. The celebration was expanded to a month in 1976, the nation's bicentennial. The Lincoln Resource Center is pleased to provide you with a select list of U.S. resources celebrating Black History Month. For reference inquiries, please call our librarians at the Lincoln Resource Center at tel: 2168 4822, 2168 5085 or 2168 4996 or send e-mail inquiries to lrckl@po.jaring.my.
